Axis Technical Group:

Automate your business processes and data capture to achieve higher performance.

Leverage Axis Technical Group's deep industry knowledge in systems integration and data extraction to unlock the business intelligence that enables the digital enterprise.

COMPETING IN A DIGITAL WORLD

Every business has been impacted by the digital transformation that has changed how goods and services are purchased and consumed. A new level of contextualized information is now expected with every purchase. Decision timeframes have accelerated. Product and service reviews now directly impact brand integrity.

Axis Technical Group works closely with many companies to ease this transition. We help clients to modernize and automate data collection, consolidation, and distribution across systems infrastructures. Streamlining access to and visibility of critical business data has elevated our client's business performance, improved efficiency, and cut costs. Combined, these benefits quickly deliver a significant return on investment to our customers.

TRUSTED ADVISOR FOR TWO DECADES

Axis Technical Group has consistently delivered real value to its clients by building strong partnerships and becoming a trusted advisor. This close working relationship has resulted in customers that continue to work with us. Our average customer tenure is over a decade, indicative of the close working relationships we have created.

Our passion is to first understand exactly how your business operates. With this knowledge, we put together an implementation plan that perfectly meets your needs. We identify your business requirements, budget, and timeframes to put together a plan with commitments that can then be relied upon.

ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY SOLUTIONS

Ten years ago, Axis Technical Group began developing new solutions based on new advanced technologies. This decision was based on an expectation that substantial performance improvement was possible in how companies access and manage data. Our customers benefit from this investment.

Axis Smart Data Extraction™ is a managed service tailored to the unique needs of the Financial Services, Real Estate, and Title Insurance industries. Using proprietary algorithms, Artificial Intelligence, Natural Language Processing (NLP), and Optical Character Recognition (OCR), this highly scalable solution can quickly and effectively extract unstructured data. Other services include Intelligent Process Automation and Robotic Process Automation (RPA) offerings.

DEEP INDUSTRY KNOWLEDGE

The Axis Technical Group team includes IT professionals with decades of industry experience and knowledge. This team has established a strong track record of implementing advanced technology solutions in each of the following industries:

- Real Estate and Title Insurance
- Financial Services
- Dentistry
- Healthcare
- Energy & Utilities
